

Call for Nominations:

2024 Armand-Frappier Outstanding Student Award

Objective of Award: To provide national recognition to outstanding graduate student microbiologists.

Eligibility: Any student currently attending a recognized Canadian graduate program, who has done outstanding scientific work in microbiology, shall be eligible for the Award. Both the nominator and the student must be members of the CSM and have paid the current year membership fees.

Award Lecture: The award winner will present a 40 minute talk based on the work for which the award was given during the Annual Conference of the CSM/SCM. This year the Conference will be held at Western University from June 23 to June 26, 2024. The awardee will be invited to provide a review article based on the research presented for publication in the Canadian Journal of Microbiology (CJM), which is published by the Canadian Science Publishing. The awardee will receive a framed certificate and a cheque in the amount of $500. In addition, the awardee will be reimbursed for registration for the Conference. Commendation Certificates will be awarded to three runner-up entrants and Certificates of Recognition will be provided to all university nominees.

Nomination Process: Any CSM Regular Member in good standings can nominate one student. The nominator has to be a faculty member at the same institution as the student. There are no limits as to the number of nominees from any one institution. The attached application form shall be completed by the nominee and nominator. All materials should be submitted by e-mail to the CSM Secretariat: info@csm-scm.org.

The Nomination Deadline is January 19th, 2024.

Method of Selection: The selection of the award winner shall be made by a special Award Committee consisting of three international members appointed by the CSM president. If the committee believes that no nominee merits the award in any given year, then no award shall be made.
